

The EASTERN LINE

NO. 344 COMBINATION SPRING WAGON

Body—Framed 7 feet long, 34 inches wide, 8 inches deep, ironed on top all around and thoroughly braced; drop tail gate.

Seats—Wide and roomy, with high solid panel backs, both seats removable.

Trimming—Broadcloth, whipcord, or imitation leather.

Gear—Axles $1\frac{1}{8}$ inch double collar, best short turn fifth wheel; Hayes triple spring in front, two springs in rear, double reach ironed full length.

Wheels—Sarven patent with one inch steel tire, full bolted. Screwed rims.

Painting—Body black, gear and wheels Brewster green or carmine.